SMALL INCREASE IN REGISTRATION.

Official Figures Announced Yester day Show a Gain of Only 3,650 Over 1896.

POLITICIANS ARE SURPRISED.

Enrollment Was Heaviest in the Residence Districts, the Downtown Wards Showing a Falling Off.

The total registration of voters for this year, as officially announced yesterday by Secretary Hobilizelle of the Board of Election Commissioners, is 135,111, a net increase of 355 names over the enrollment of 1896. The population of the city being $81,575, according to the compliations of Supervisor of the Census Higgins, the voting contingent onsists of II per cent of the city's people, or, in other words, the voter is as I is to 4.32, The accepted rule is that there is one voter to every five citizens, according to which the total registration would be 116,915, lower by 18,196 than the actual official figures. The entry in 1896 was 131,461. The population was then considerably smaller than it is now, and if it be estimated at 15,000 less (509,575), the voters comprised .231 of the population and individually were as 1 is to 4.23. On the basis of 1 to 5 the registration would have been 113,915, or 3,000 less than this year. Comparing the present census with the registration on a ratio of 1 to 5, the increase in population has been 17,250 in the past four years; at a ratio of I to 4.22 the increase was 15,763. The official figures for 1900 and 1805, by wards, are as follows, the table showing the

Not increase, 2,550.

In noting the increase and decrease in each ward, it should be remembered that nearly all the wards contain more precincts this year than in 1806, all excepting the Fourteenth, which still has it. The First Ward now has 19 precincts, 7 more than in 1806; Second, 15, 2 more; Third, 20, 8 more; Fourth, 12, 3 more; Seventh, 18, 3 more; Sixth, 18, 3 more; Seventh, 18, 5 more; Eighth, 18, 4 more; Ninth, 16, 5 more; Tenth, 18, 4 more; Eleventh, 19, 7 more; Twelfth, 17, 4 more; Furteenth, 11, 3 more; Sixteenth, 11, 4 more; Fourteenth, 11, 1 more; Sixteenth, 11, 4 more; Seventeenth, 15, 3 more; Fourteenth, 14, 1 more; Twenty-first, 14, 3 more; Twenty-first, 14, 3 more; Twenty-first, 14, 3 more; Twenty-first, 14, 3 more; Twenty-second, 14, 1 more; Twenty-first, 15, 2 more; Twenty-sixth, 16, 2 more; 16, 2 more; 17 more; 18 m

Increase is Natural.

The increase is the number of precincts and the remarkable decrease in the enrollment in many of the wards would seem to indicate that there was some juggling or padding four years ago, Mr. Hobatzele states. On the other hand, the comparison of the census and the registration tends to prove that the increase of 2,559 in the registration, although small, is in every sense natural. In this connection the fact that the wards in the downtown district show the decrease and those in the acknowledged residence districts the increase is also worthy of note. The Third Ward, with 8 more preclinets, shows a decrease of 75%; the Fourth, with 3 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 4 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth, with 5 more, a decrease of 55%; the Sixteenth of the Appeals Session.

The Board of Election Commissioners will convene as a court of appeals on November I, 2 and 3, when those persons who were disfranchised by the Board of Revision, or who were not allowed to register at the polls, or who were unable to enroll for any valid reason, will be enabled to state their cases for official action. Secretary Hoblitzelle declares that the inquiry will be strict, and that no one need take the trouble to appear unless his argument is exceptionally plausible. He assumes that the registration is now closed to all excepting those who have just cause for appeal

EVEN MONEY ON BRYAN.

Texarkana Merchant Offers to Bet $3,000, but No Takers Appear. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Texarkana, Ark., Oct. 23.-Three thousand dollars was put up at this place to-day to be waged on Bryan's election. The man betting was Joseph Ehrlish, a prominent betting was Joseph Ehrlish, a prominent dry-goods merchant of Texarkana, Ark. The offer is for even money, but no takers have appeared. There have been large numbers of small bets made here during the present campaign, but the projectors were mostly from the Republican side. This time the lead is taken by a Democrat, and the occasion is accepted as an evidence of the strong growth of Eryan's weight in this section, not to say anything of the tidal influence that the Democratic party is evincing towards a landside.

Snake Nearly Ate Snake Eater.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 21.—Thomas McAllster, known as "Esau, the Snake Eater," had his left arm amputated at the shoulder to-day by the surgeon at the City Hospital in order to save his life. "Esau," who was connected with a side show at the Texas State Fair in this city two weeks ago, was attempting to eat one of the snakes provided for him in his professional "turn," but the reptile, a Texas "ratiler," got the better of the argument and came near eating him. Blood poison resulted from the bite and made to-day's surgical operation necessary.
